

Mobile Phones and Camera Policy

We have a small camera, used for taking photographs of the children. Sometimes, we use our mobile phones for this. Occasionally we may ask another childminder to take photos of one of the children in our care. Apart from this no visitors to the building are permitted to take photos of the children in our care. Older children with camera phones are required to leave them in their bags in the hall.